Summer Music Magic!

One of our pupils had an amazing time at the Hawarden Primary School's Summer Concert to showcase her brilliant musical talent.

Alma, took part as a member of the Theatr Clwyd Junior Wind Band. She even played a beautiful solo of Lord of the Dance! She had a great time and played so confidently.

"I went to church and after a lot of practice, I performed Lord of the Dance. My dad played the guitar instead of a backing track. I played the clarinet and wore my school uniform to represent St John's. I had a brilliant time."

Well done, Alma!

Welcome Back & Exciting News!

We were delighted to welcome the Bondugulapti family visiting from Abu Dhabi. It was wonderful to see them again!

Also, congratulations to Surya, who is embarking on an exciting journey into medicine. We wish Surya all the best in this inspiring career path!

Please remember to join the Summer Reading Challenge either online or at your local library!
